Computer Basics

Friday, April 6, 9:30 AM

Are you a new computer user with little or no experience using a keyboard and mouse? If so, come to this class and learn how to left-click, right-click and use basic command keys as you prepare to enter the online world! Sign up at the library.

National Library Week

April 9 - April 14

The library is offering fine forgiveness and free guest passes. If you have fines, come in and let the staff know you would like fine forgiveness. This will not apply to charges for lost materials. For computer guest passes we will not require ID and will not count passes against the 2 per year count. One week only!

Book Lovers Bash

Tuesday, April 10, 6:00 PM

Celebrate National Library Week with fellow bibliophiles (book lovers)! Play Book Bingo and Speed Dating for Books. Enjoy dessert while perusing library resources. There will also be book giveaways, including recent best sellers.

FabLab: Yarn Wrapped Kites

April 16 - April 28

Get into spring by making a yarn wrapped kite decoration. Supplies available in the Youth Department.

Post-It Poetry

April 16 - April 28

April is National Poetry Month. Celebrate by creating your own Post-It Note Poetry. Write a poem to fit on a Post-It and stick it to our display in the Internet Cafe for others to enjoy. Favorites may be shared on the library's Facebook page.

Stop Motion Animation

Monday, April 16, 11:00 AM & 4:00 PM

Learn to produce stop motion animation at the library. Using free apps and library iPads, you'll help write and direct a short video. For ages 9-18.
