UNEARTH A STORY™

SUMMER READING 2026
LOG YOUR READING & EARN CHANCES TO WIN PRIZES!

Mary Wood Weldon Memorial Library is proud to bring you the 2026 Summer Reading Program, Unearth a Story. This year's theme is especially meaningful as America celebrates its 250th birthday.

For generations, libraries have opened doors to literacy, learning, curiosity, and opportunity. They preserve our shared history while helping shape the future — one reader at a time.

This summer, we invite you to celebrate the enduring role of libraries, and the special place your library holds in the story of Barren County. Join us for Summer Reading 2026 and help make this our biggest and most memorable year yet!

FAMILY FUN

UNEARTH A FOLKTALE WITH STORYTELLER PAUL STRICKLAND

Thursday, June 11 | 6:00 PM
@ The Grove

Join us at The Grove for an hour of rollicking, interactive fun with professional storyteller Paul Strickland. He has more hours of unique family-friendly stories in his repertoire than he has fingers, and all ages will enjoy Paul's stories!

MARIO KART TOURNAMENT

Saturday, June 27 | 1:00 PM - 3:00 PM

Let's-a-go! Our hit Mario Kart tournament is back and bigger than ever—this time, racers of ALL AGES are invited to hit the track and compete for glory. Join us for a high-energy, bracket-style competition featuring head-to-head races on the Nintendo Switch. The ultimate prize? One lucky winner will take home the mysterious and coveted LED light—perfect for any gamer's trophy shelf.

MAMMOTH CAVE FOSSILS

Monday, June 29 | 5:00 PM

Unearth Kentucky's past through fossils! A ranger from Mammoth Cave National Park will present a show-and-tell featuring fossils at the park from the Mississippian Period, including seashells and coral! All ages are welcome for this fascinating look at the history of ancient Kentucky.

JUNE TEENTH CLOSED Friday, June 19 for Juneteenth

CLOSED Friday, July 3 & Saturday, July 4

CELEBRATE AMERICA 250

Celebrate 110 Chapters of MWWML

Friday, June 5 | 11:00 AM - 3:30 PM
Join us as we celebrate 110 Years of Sharing Stories at the library! Festivities begin with a ribbon cutting ceremony at 11:00 AM presented by Barren INC, followed by cupcakes and other fun activities.

Louisville Orchestra

Thursday, June 25 | 2:00 PM
Experience the Louisville Orchestra In-Harmony Tour at the library, where live interactive storytelling meets the magic of music with the story Bear Snores On. This free event does not require registration.

LEGO @ the Library

Tuesday, June 16 & July 14 | 12:00 PM - 6:00 PM
Drop in anytime from 12 PM – 6 PM to put your LEGO skills to the test. Each participant will receive a prize while supplies last!

JUNE 16: Build a shelter strong enough to protect your dinosaur from “meteors.”

JULY 14: Create anything from towering T. Rex habitats to dino-sized inventions while enjoying our movie marathon.

Legally Blonde

25th Anniversary Thursday, July 9 | 5:00 PM

Can you believe Elle Woods first stepped onto the Harvard campus and into a courtroom (and our hearts!) 25 years ago?

Wear something pink, and practice your bend-and-snap for our free screening. The best Elle Woods look-alike will take home a fun prize. Snacks provided. Rated PG-13

Let the Earth Breathe* Thursday, June 25 | 6:00PM

Discover how a Kentucky couple transformed their yard into a thriving habitat for pollinators and wildlife. In this full-color presentation, author Stephen Allten Brown shares simple ways to turn any yard into a native plant haven. Copies of Let the Earth Breathe: Gardening with Native Plants will be available for purchase before and after the program.

Our American Story: Lettice Pierce Bryan* Thursday, July 16 | 6:30 PM

Lettice Pierce Bryan was a pioneering but often-overlooked figure in Kentucky history. Born near Danville, she wrote The Kentucky Housewife, Kentucky's first published cookbook which offers a fascinating glimpse into 19th-century domestic life. Dr. Cynthia Resor portrays Lettice in this engaging presentation.

America 250: American Girl Celebration Tuesday, June 30 | 4:00PM

Celebrate 40 years of American Girl with crafts, games, and birthday fun. Dress in your favorite era or bring your favorite doll for an afternoon of creativity and celebration. This activity is for all ages.

America 250: Hamilton BINGO Tuesday, June 30 | 6:00 PM

Celebrate America 250 with a musical twist on BINGO inspired by Hamilton! Listen for songs from the hit musical, mark your card, and compete for fun prizes. Be advised: Hamilton is PG-13.

Journaling Our Community History June 1 - July 31

Patrons ages 9+ are encouraged to help us unearth the story of Barren County by participating in our community-based journaling program. We will offer a variety of journals, each with a different prompt for you to answer. The journals will be available for checkout in our local author collection at the end of the summer, so content should be appropriate for all ages.

American Flag Scavenger Hunt June 1 - July 31

Celebrate 250 years with our American flag scavenger hunt. Find ten American flags at businesses throughout Barren County. Turn in completed sheets for a ticket to put in any prize box of your choosing (with the exception of the grand prize boxes). Scavenger hunt sheets can be picked up at the library.

*This program is brought to you by Kentucky Humanities with support from the Federation of State Humanities Councils, the America250KY Commission, and the Kentucky Historical Society. Any views, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed in this program do not necessarily represent those of Kentucky Humanities.

ESCAPE ROOM: DINO CONTAINMENT BREACH!

RED ALERT! The Jurassic Containment Facility is in chaos. Alan was supposed to follow Ian and Ellie's to-do list — but he didn't. Now, a T-Rex named Mongo has escaped its enclosure! The containment gates are still operational, and you must piece together the clues to uncover the code that will close the gates.

WARNING
Register to secure your group's time slot for our Escape Room Experience!

JULY: Make a cool salt dough pendant at the library.

PASSIVE PROGRAMS

SAND, SPLASH, & SCRIBBLE:
 Dig, splash, and create in our outdoor courtyard play space! With sand to scoop, water to explore, and chalk to draw their own tales, kids can let their imaginations run wild. Please go through the double doors behind the youth desk to access this space.

Dino Voting: What kind of dinosaur are you? Find out in our Youth Department!

Jurassic Jargon: Decode the secret message in our Youth Department.

Adopt-a-Dino: Be the first to find a dino hidden in the children's section book stacks.

Take & Make Tuesdays: Every Tuesday there will be a new craft kit for you to take home. Stop by the Youth Department to pick yours up (while supplies last).

Dino Name Game: Break down dinosaur names to learn the meaning and find out why your favorite dino has its name.

Dinos @ the Park: Visit a local park to find toy dinosaurs! If you find one you can keep it, OR bring it to the library to trade for a prize ticket.

THE GRAND PRIZE BUNDLE

A Yoto Player is a screen-free audio device for kids that plays stories, music, podcasts, and educational content using physical cards instead of apps or streaming menus.

READ. LISTEN. WATCH!
